The War on Our Creed

Fabricated history books claim that the campaigns and invasions by the Muslims were not waged on an ideological basis. Rather, they were sovereign political wars, or wars for economy, for wealth, minerals, and dams, or they were nationalistic wars for crossings and the geographical borders… They confined people only to the ground, denying their affairs being commanded from the sky! And thereby, they limited them between the geographical borders! They took country as their biggest idol! And mud is the utmost of their goals! And they pin their hearts on the world, not with the religion, and so the world became their only concern and aspiration.

This was accompanied by a systematic distortion of the Islamic creed. The chief advocates of Hell took over, who worked hard for corrupting this creed and subverting it under many proceedings, not the first of which is the "interfaith dialogue", and not the last of which is "humanism," the new religion that has been devised to dominate the servants and the countries, and Islam is being crowded out in every field.

After decades of falsification and distortion of the history of the Islamic creed, people grew up seeing "homeland" as a deity being worshiped besides Allah ﷻ. Equal for them are a Muslim and an kaffir! And they view from the perspective of al-Wal wal-Bara, and they call their dead "martyrs", even if they are non-Muslims! And they prioritize their homeland over everything else, even if it was the place of tawhid of the Lord of all creation. As such, the homeland became the biggest taghut in the land!

The loss of religion and the corruption of belief is the greatest misfortune that has not been overtaken by any other misfortune! It was narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, that he said: "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ rarely used to stand from a council to make these supplications: '...And do not make our calamity in our religion, nor You make the world burden us, and our knowledge is not beyond measure...'" [Narration of At-Tirmidhi] And the failure to recognize the inescapable truth is the greatest misfortune of people today in their religion! All the misfortunes of the world can easily be accepted, but the misfortune in religion can hardly be accepted! Rather, the misfortunes and the worldly concerns that burdened our people today are free from the greatest misfortune, which lies in shirk and corruption of faith. Allah ﷻ says: "And if the people of the towns had believed and feared, we would have bestowed blessings upon them from the heavens and the earth, but they lied, so We seized them for what they had earned" (Al-A'raaf: 96). Ibn Kathir said: "That is, if their hearts had believed in what the Messengers brought to them, and if they believed in it and followed it. And beware by doing acts of worship and leaving forbidden things." No, by Allah, they do not believe in Allah, His Scriptures, and His Messenger, since they claim that the Christians are believers and they will enter Paradise, and they attach to them the titles of "martyrs". It has been transmitted by Imam al-Bukhari in the chapter of his Sahih that: "It should not be said that the so-and-so are martyrs." By this he means that the testimony of any of the Muslims is not severable except for the one for whom the Prophet ﷺ or the revelation testified. As far as the heretics of today are concerned, who do they want to enter into the Paradise of Allah ﷻ? Those who associate partners with Him, claiming that Allah is the third of three!! And that 'Issa is the son of Allah!! And that 'Issa is Allah!! Allah ﷻ says in Quran: "They have certainly disbelieved who say, 'Allah is the third of three.' And there is no god except one God." (Al-Ma'idah: 73). And His Majesty says: "They have certainly disbelieved who say, 'Allah is the Messiah, the son of Mary" while the Messiah has said, "O Children of Israel, worship Allah, my Lord and your Lord.' Indeed, he who associates others with Allah - Allah has forbidden him Paradise, and his refuge is the Fire. And there are not for the wrongdoers any helpers" (Al-Ma'idah: 72). And the heretics of our time respond to the final saying of Allah ﷻ and His rule of justice for the Christian kuffar. All of this is a victory for their idol that they made the center of the universe and presented that in front of the Creator of the universe! Then they claim that Allah ﷻ will make them victorious, whereas they violated every condition for the victory, and they, eventually, worked against it.

The Murji'ah and their followers are from the remaining heretics. They do not acknowledge the nullifiers of faith, claiming that these have been denied by the necessity of the religion. It is known that the atonement of Christians also seems to be part of the religion of necessity. So what is left for them today who have denied it? What can be learned from the religion of necessity?! Rather, they were satisfied with that and sought to legitimize their kufri superstitions, in which no one preceded them. The kufr of the Christians is unquestionable, and it is not a speculative issue. It is completely explicit, not hidden at all. If they were to be affiliated with Islam, do they not know anything about Islam? What do they know about Islam? They claim that a Christian kaffir is a martyr in Jannah, but a mujahid Muslim is out there in hellfire?! Are they ignorant? Or simply resisting opponents?! These people did not accept the truth of Islam, which is submission to the commandment of Allah; rather, they wanted to subjugate Islam, the verses of Qur'an, Paradise, and the mercy of the Most Merciful Allah to their whims, and their intellectual levels dictate the emotional victory for the idol named as 'motherland'! Showing depravity to Allah ﷻ and the belief of Islam, it is an unprecedented heresy, and it is the product of eras and decades of dark wars of distortion and corruption committed by the Murji'ah, Sururiyah, and the "Brotherhood" against the creed of Islam.

This deviation is the harvest of deferment of the wrath upon most of the groups and sects falsely affiliated with Islam. It is the product of years of efforts by the preachers of the satellite channels and the so-called shuyukh of the tawaghit. However, already the Islamic State has warned - in its speeches and media outlets - these pretend often that they are a threat to the creed of Islam! We have advised, explained, and excused us to Allah ﷻ, but most of the people do not bring faith and do not like sincere counsels.

It is an all-out war against Islam and its people, who believe in Allah as the Lord, Creator, Disposer of His beings, and the adored deity that they single out for worship, and they do not associate with Him in worship with any other deity, not even homeland or any other idol. They believe in the Names and Attributes of the Most High, in the torment which He inflicts on whom He wills, and in the vast expanse of His mercy that He decided in his Book that He would bestow on those who believe in His verses, as He ﷻ says: "Those who follow the Messenger, the unlettered Prophet," who ﷺ said and swore: "By the One in Whose Hand Muhammad's soul is! There is nobody of this Ummah, be they Jewish or Christian, who hears of me and then dies without believing in what I was sent with except that he will be among the people of Hellfire." [Muslim] But the heretics of today refuse it!

And Allah ﷻ has commanded us to supplicate in every prayer, by saying, "Show us the straight path," which is the path of Islam, and to avoid us from the path of the wrathful ones, the Jews, and the way of the lost ones, the Christians! To what did they convert? The straight path is the path of the one who does not make takfir on the Christians or calls them to the forbidden Paradise!! But who can guarantee us that they will not take a stand? The same stand with the Jews one day?! And we hear the descriptions of "martyr" called on a Jew killed by the Zionists? What happened and what is happening is within the chapter from the raging war waged by the kuffar and murtaddin on the Islamic creed. And those kuffar involved with them armed soldiers, people with turbans and beards, writers, activists, and preachers - all calling the people to Hell! What is required for the Muslims is to stand up to this fierce attack on the Islamic creed, and there is no way to confront this war except with a counter war based on jihad on the prophetic methodology. Verily, everything else is false, and soon it is going to be another chapter in addition to the chapters of the war on Islam, and undoubtedly, the final consequence is for the righteous.

From the Saying of the Religious Scholars

Imam Ibn al-Qayyim -رحمه الله- said:

Glory be to Him, may He be exalted, said: Allah has taken away their light, and he did not say: Their light has gone, and in it there is a wonderful secret, which is the breaking of the secret of that special community that belongs to the believers from Allah the Almighty, for Allah the Almighty is with the believers; Allah is with the patient, And Allah is with those who are pious and those who are doers of good, so Allah's removal of the light by that light cuts off His special fascination with which He singled out His guardians, and cuts it off between Him and the hypocrites, so there is nothing left with them after their light has gone away, nor with them He said, No, my Lord will guide me."

The love for prominence.. Check your Intentions!

Praise be to Allah, and prayers and peace be upon Allah's Prophet, his family and companions, and those who are loyal to him, and then.

Indeed, Allah the All-Knowing, the All-Aware, appointed human being as successors on the earth and infused certain instincts in him and filled around him the enjoyments of this world in manner to test his submission to Him, and his adherence to what He commanded him, and Allah the Glorified One is looking at him, aware of all his conditions, as His the Noble Messenger ﷺ said: "The world is sweet and green, and Allah will let you succeed in it, so He sees how you do..." [Narrated by Muslim], for man is in the sight and hearing of Allah the Almighty, He knows what his soul whispers to him, and He is even closer to him than his jugular vein, and He the Almighty has specified for him, from the enjoyment of this "sweet and green" world, what is allowed and what is forbidden, so He ﷻ permitted what He ﷻ pleased, whatever is beneficial for the man and those around him, and He ﷻ forbade him from what He ﷻ does not like, which corrupts the man's condition and the condition of those around him.

Among the things that his Lord forbade him and that corrupts him is: his aspiration for the love of prominence and seeking prestige in this transient life. This characteristic is not from the characteristics of those who look forward to the hereafter, which Allah ﷻ wrote for the righteous and those who lower their wing (in kindness) for the Muslims. The Almighty said: "That Home of the Hereafter We shall give to those who intend not high-handedness or mischief on earth: and the end is (best) for the righteous." [Al-Qasas: 83], so the Muslim who is keen to have a good and righteous outcome is keen not to seek highness and prestige in this land at the expense of his religion, but rather frames himself in humility, if he finds himself to be loving show off or attached to prestige.

Sufyan at-Thawri wrote to 'Abbad bin' Abbad, a letter in which he said: "Beware of being one of those who like for their words to be acted upon!, or their words to be published!, or their words to be heard!, and beware of the love of leadership, as for certain people the love of leadership is even more beloved than gold and silver, and it is a mysterious door that only the discerning of scholars may notice, so check your heart and act with intention."

The love of prestige and authority is one of the hidden ills of souls, and it has its causes, symptoms, and effects, as well as its medicine and treatment.

One of the causes of this disease

One of the causes of this disease is ignorance of the reality of the world, so whoever contemplates the fact that the worldly life is heading to an inevitable demise, and that it is a little enjoyment, and that no matter how long it is, it is short, and no matter how great it is, it is despicable, and that the Muslim in it is like a rider who takes shelter in the shade of a tree and then goes and leaves it; Nothing of its prestige gets magnified in his eyes, and his soul is not aspired to anything of its wreckage, and one of the causes of this disease is also the ignorance of man himself, so he thinks himself greater than he is, so he claims that he is seeking the prestige as his right and putting himself in the appropriate position for him, without knowing that by doing so, he is killing himself! One of the reasons is also the sense of inferiority that the person is trying to make up for by seeking prestige and to satisfy himself through it, and among the reasons that lead to it also is the large number of flatterers who we have been commanded to throw dust in their faces, who do not take into account the condition of the praised one nor the ill effect upon him by their praise, including his self-aggrandizement and exaltation, and his delusion by the false prestige.

Symptoms of this disease

As far as the symptoms of this disease concerned, they are many; they include seeking knowledge for arguments and prominence, rather than for education and action, and it was narrated on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ that He said: "He who sought knowledge to compete the scholars, or to argue the fools, or to turn the faces of people towards himself through that knowledge, Allah will enter him in the hell."[narrated by Abu Dawood], and another one of its symptoms is: to talk about oneself too often, like saying: I have got this and that, and I can do this and that, and I am blessed with this and that. Allah the Almighty has shown the example of such people, and they include Iblis - may Allah curse him - as it has been narrated in the Almighty's wordings: "What prevented you that you did not prostrate yourself, when I commanded you (to prostrate yourself)?" Iblîs (Satan) said: 'I am better than him (Adam), You created me from fire, and him You created from clay.'" [Al-A'raf: 12], And about the Pharaoh Allah ﷻ said: "And Pharaoh proclaimed amongst his people: 'O my people, is not mine the kingdom of Egypt? And these rivers flowing beneath me? Do you not still see?'" [Az-Zukhruf: 51], and also Qarun, the one whom Allah the Almighty caused the earth to swallow him and his dwellings, said: "This (wealth) has been given to me only because of the knowledge I possess." [Al-Qasas: 78], and some more symptoms of this disease are: the pursuit of leadership and authority, love for themselves, and not to take them with their right, fulfilling the responsibility and benefiting the land and the people, rather to quench the thirst for prestige and to satisfy the desire of the soul.

The effects of this disease

Among the effects of seeking prestige and the love of authority by means of money, leadership, knowledge or others is corruption of religion, Allah forbid. Imam Ahmad narrated in his Musnad from the hadith of Ka'b bin Malik al-Ansari - may Allah be pleased with him - on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ that He ﷺ said: "The two hungry wolves, sent in flock of sheep, can't be more harmful than one's eagerness for money and honor for his religion." Ibn Rajab - may Allah have mercy on him - said: "This is a very great example that the Prophet ﷺ gave for the corruption of a believer's religion by his eagerness for the money and honor in this world, and the corruption of religion, and as a result, this is in no way lesser than the spoilage in sheep caused by the two dangerous wolves that spend night among them, seeking opportunity for their shepherds to be absent from them so that they may eat the sheep and prey on them, and it is well known that only a few among the sheep will be able to escape from the spoilage of the two wolves mentioned in the described situation" [Dhamm al-Mal wal-Jah]. And among its effect is also the possibility of ending up committing the nullifiers of Islam or perpetrating the great sins, as what happened with Pharaoh, Qarun, the polytheists of Quraish and Ibn Salul, and as what is happening with many people today, from the highly educated, prominent, and notable people, and from those who love fame and leadership on the Internet, so the love of prominence that many of these had, pushed them towards shameful concessions, preferring the people's desires and their pleasure upon Allah's orders, His commands, and pleasure; so they achieved nothing but the wrath of Allah the Almighty and the wrath of people!

The treatment of this disease

Since it is a disease, it has a cure and it's a necessity, and its remedy is: knowing the reality of the world and its contempt, looking forward to the hereafter and contemplating what came in its description of pleasures in which there is no distress or interruption, knowing the reality of the soul and acknowledging its weakness, knowing the need it has for the help of Allah, its Creator, and Maker, not relying on its own strength and power and seeking Allah's power and strength, asking Him, the Glorious, for sincerity in words and actions and asking Him - the Almighty - to break the desire of the soul looking forward to prominence, meditating on the condition of those who wanted to be prominent in this world, so Allah destroyed them the worst destruction, severed their backs, and made them an example, and being careful not to seek leadership and authority, as it is a door to evil and danger, as man is weak and does not feel secure in himself! And it is a trust and on the Day of Resurrection it will be the cause of disgrace and regret, as it has been said in the Hadith on the authority of Abu Dhar - may Allah be pleased with him – that he said: "O Messenger of Allah, will you not appoint me?" So He ﷺ hit with his hand on my shoulder, then said: "O Abu Dharr, you are weak, and it is a trust, and on the Day of Resurrection it will be disgrace and remorse, except for those who took it with its right and fulfilled the responsibility upon him." [narrated by Muslim]

Benefit

If someone says: Ibrahim - peace be upon Him - asked Allah to make a remembrance for Him after Him, as He said: "And grant me an honorable mention in later generations." [As-Shu'ara: 84] And that Yusuf, peace be upon Him, asked for the authority when He said to the king: "Set me over the storehouses of the land; I will indeed guard them with full knowledge." [Yusuf: 55] Allah the Almighty has mentioned among the attributes of the righteous servants of Ar-Rahman that they are: "And those who say: 'Our Lord! Bestow on us from our wives and our offspring who will be the comfort of our eyes, and make us leaders for the Muttaqun (pious). '" [Al-Furqan: 74] They asked to be imams for the righteous, so why is it forbidden for a Muslim to ask for prominence and prestige? We say: "As for the Prophet Ibrahim - peace be upon Him - He asked Allah to have a good remembrance after Him and He did not work for that, and Ibn Kathir said in the interpretation of the mentioned verse: "That is, make for me a beautiful remembrance after me that through which I will be mentioned, and be followed in goodness." And as for the Prophet Yusuf - peace be upon Him - He was worthy of it and did not ask for it for its own sake, but for the righteousness of the country and the people. As for the prayer of the servants of Ar-Rahman, that they be imams for the pious, Imam al-Bukhari - may Allah have mercy on him - said in its interpretation: "Imams following those who came before us, and be followed by those who will come after us." He differentiated between those who seek leadership and remembrance for the sake of the world and those who seek that out of concern for the Hereafter, and Allah the Almighty said: "Whosoever desires the life of the world and its glitter, to them We shall pay in full (the wages of) their deeds therein, and they will have no diminution therein. They are those for whom there is nothing in the Hereafter but Fire, and vain are the deeds they did therein." [Hud : 15-16]
So this is the disease, and these are its causes, symptoms, and effects, so the Muslim must check himself every time, for he may be infected with this hidden disease from where he does not know. And whosoever feels something from it, must rush to its remedy throughout his life, and he must rectify himself and blame himself for it. As the hearts are between two fingers of the Ar-Rahman, He ﷻ turns them as He ﷻ wills, and there is no might or power except with Allah, the Most High, the Great.
